

Climbers for Christ Privacy Policy

Last updated: October 2, 2026

Climbers for Christ prioritizes the privacy and protection of its members and partners. This Privacy Policy describes how Climbers for Christ collects, uses, and discloses your personal information when you visit, use our services, donate or make a purchase from climbersforchrist.org or otherwise communicate with us.

How We Collect and Use Your Personal Information

To provide you with resources and information on Climbers for Christ, we collect information about you through interest forms, membership sign-ups, donation forms, and through event ticketing in order to process your donation, membership, event ticketing, or to request more info. We only share your information if explicitly requested to do so for donation processing, or to connect you to local events, chapters, and partners. Climbers for Christ will not sell or give your information to anyone outside of the organization.

Information We Collect Directly from You

Information that you directly submit to us may include:

- Basic contact details including your name, address, phone number, email, date of birth, and payment information.
- Personal interests you may include when you fill out our interest form.
- Donor support information including the information you choose to include in communications with us, for example, when sending a message to our membership support team.

Information We Obtain from Third Parties

We may obtain information about you from third parties, including from vendors and service providers who may collect information on our behalf, such as our customer relationship management platform, member platform, merch fulfillment service, and payment processor to process donation or membership information.

Any information we obtain from third parties will be treated in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We are not responsible or liable for the accuracy of the information provided to us by third parties and are not responsible for any third party's policies or practices. How We Protect Your Information

The security of your personal data is important to us, but remember that no method of transmission over the internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure.

Payment information is kept in a secure third party system. Our website is protected by Secure Sockets Layer software and data is encrypted. We only ask for information that is necessary to fulfill your request.

Children's Privacy

Climbers for Christ services do not address anyone under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 13. If you are a parent or guardian and you are aware that your child has provided us with personal data, please contact us. If we become aware that we have collected personal data from anyone under the age of 13 without verification of parental consent, we take steps to remove that information from our system.

Choice to Opt Out

You have the choice to completely opt out of Climbers for Christ communications. To stop receiving emails, texts, or phone calls from Climbers for Christ, reach out to info@climbersforchrist.org to unsubscribe.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. We will let you know via email and update the "Last updated" date at the top of this Privacy Policy.
